

Assignment - 4

EMAMI LIMITED (AR) CONTENTS

Basis of Preparation and Presentation

Reporting Period

Reporting boundary

financial and non-financial reporting

Report alignment

forward looking statement

Editorial Overview:-

There has been a significant volatility in the FMCG personal & health care space. This has affected all such players, Emami included corporate snapshot:-

Our vision making peoples healthy and beautiful, naturally.

founder's statement

If there is one thing that has marked the history of emami, it has been the capacity to believe in itself the market and india

Board of directors

Anjan chatterjee

Anand V. Dauda

Rajiv Khaitan

mamta Binani

10-year performance highlights

Typically refers to a summary of key financial and operational metrics over the past decade. For a company like Emami limited this section.

managing director's review

The company's performance, strategies and future outlook.

Emami's integrated value - creation report

Our capitals

key capitals and how performed in 2022-23

key initiatives

Stakeholder engagement

Risk management

Economy & sector review

Financial capital Brand capital:-

- ★ Nubra : The cool, cooler, coolest brand
- ★ Pain management india's preferred and trusted pain reliever.
- ★ Boroplus : Elevating skincare and building trust
- ★ Kesh King : The King of oils
- ★ Male grooming capitalising on the upwave
- ★ Dermicol acquired up wave
- ★ Health care : How we strengthened our healthcare business in 2022-23 manufacturing capital:-

The collection of physical assets, financial resources, and infrastructure that are used to produce goods in the manufacturing sector.

Intellectual Capital:-

Intellectual capital is intangible assets and resources of an organization that contribute to its value and competitive advantage.

Human capital :-

Human capital is the collective skills, knowledge, and experience of individuals that contribute to an organization's productivity and economic value.

Social and Relationship capital :-

Social and relationship capital is the value derived from an organization's relationships with stakeholders, including trust, loyalty, and mutual understanding.

Statutory section :-

A statutory section is a specific part of a law or legal code that details particular provisions or regulations.

Financial section :-

A financial section is a part of a report, document, or plan that provides detailed information about financial data, such as income, expenses, assets, liabilities, and overall financial performance.

standalone financial statements :-

standalone financial statements are financial reports for a single entity, excluding any consolidated or combined data from subsidiaries or related companies. They provide a detailed view of the entity's own financial position, performance, and cash flow.

consolidated financial statement :-

consolidated financial statements combine the financial information of a parent company and its subsidiaries into a single set of reports.